

Was Married in Montana

WELL KNOWN YOUNG LADY FORMERLY OF THIS PLACE, MARRIES IN GLASGOW, MONT.

The following is taken from the Valley County News, published at Glasgow, Mont. The bride is well known here, having been born in Kensal, moving to this place shortly afterwards, where she has resided ever since. Her father, Ben Thorsgaards, and a sister, Mrs. Geo. Brastrup, reside at this place.

Last Saturday evening, June 21, at 8:00 o'clock, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Hubbell, occurred a pretty, though exclusive home wedding in which Miss Bertha Thorsgard and Frank F. Brown were the contracting parties. The regular ritual ceremony was read by Rev. A. U. Baer, pastor of the Congregational church, after which the bridal party went to the Hotel Shannon where a wedding dinner was served in honor of the happy event.

The bride, as above stated, is the daughter of Mrs. E. A. Hubbell, and is a sister of Mrs. C. L. Runyon. She has only been in Glasgow a short time, coming here about six weeks ago from Minneapolis. Although a recent arrival in the city, she has prove herself a very estimable and exceptionally talented young lady, the latter especially from a musical standpoint.

The groom also came to Glasgow from Minneapolis a few months ago to accept a position in this office, and at present is foreman of the mechanical department. Since coming to this city Mr. Brown has proved himself to be a fine young man in every respect and a good printer.

It is with genuine pleasure that the News always extends to such worthy young people as the bride and groom in this case, our best wishes for their happiness in the coming years, and feel safe in predicting a bright and successful future for them.

Mr. and Mrs. Brown are now at home to their friends in a small cottage on east Market street, where they have been preparing their new home for several weeks previous to their wedding.
