

George Gibbs, cashier of the First National Bank, left Tuesday evening for his home in Wisconsin, and will be absent from the city about a month. George intends to fool his friends this time and upon his return will introduce his wife. He will be married in Milwaukee on June 2nd. They will go to housekeeping in the house now occupied by Mr. and Mrs. George Tucker.

---