

Were Married Wednesday

TWO OF OUR POPULAR YOUNG PEOPLE UNITED IN MARRIAGE.

One of the largest and most pleasant nuptial affairs which has occurred for some time took place yesterday, Oct. 28th, at the home of Charles Merrit, 9½ miles southwest of Courtenay, when their daughter, Mabel, was united in holy wedlock to Louis P. Kasper, who is also a resident southwest of Courtenay, the ceremony being performed at two o'clock, Rev. Anthony of Wimbleton, officiating. Mrs. Stoddard played the wedding march. The bride was gowned in white Crepe Dechine over white silk trimmed in white lace wearing the usual bridal veil fastened with white roses and smilax, also carrying white roses. Miss Kasper, sister of the groom, acting as bridesmaid, while Donald Merrit, brother of the bride, acted as best man. The bridesmaid was gowned in blue meseline over white silk and carried pink carnations.

The day was ideal and brought out about seventy-five relatives and friends, coming from Jamestown, Wimbleton, Courtenay and other points.

The young people have grown up in this vicinity and are among the most popular people we have in our community, and are highly thought of.

They received many beautiful and useful presents. They left for a short honeymoon trip, and upon their return they will go to housekeeping on a farm near the brides home, southwest of town.

Those from Courtenay who attended were: Rev. Copeland and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Stoddard, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Prosser, Mr. and Mrs. Lovelace, Miss Grace, Tom and John Bradford.
