

Pretty Home Weddings

SOLEMNIZED NEAR COURTENAY
THIS WEEK. HAPPY YOUNG PEOPLE WELL KNOWN

NELSON-OSTREIM

Wednesday afternoon, Feb. 26th, occurred the marriage of Miss Ellen Nelson and Joseph Ostreim, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lars Nelson, north of town.

The affair was attended by the immediate friends and relatives, who had gathered there to witness the ceremony, which was performed by Rev. Stevenson of this place. Congratulations were then showered on the happy young couple, after which the guests were invited to the dining room where a sumptuous wedding dinner was served.

The bride looked very charming attired in white crepe de chine. She was attended by her father, the groom being attended by his brother.

The wedding guests were: Misses Mary Isley, Hazel Beach and Lena Albright, Andrew Nelson, uncle of the bride, Troy Beach and Peter Ostreim.

The bride is the oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lars Nelson, an accomplished young lady, well known in this vicinity where, she was born and raised, and will be greatly missed by her many friends. The groom is one of the leading merchants of Osakis, Minn. He is well and favorably known here, having been employed at the Nelson Brothers hardware store.

Mid a shower of rice and the happy congratulations of their numerous acquaintance Mr. and Mrs. Ostreim left on the six o'clock train for Osakis, Minn., where they will make their future home. They were accompanied as far as Valley City by the wedding guests, also Annie, George, Herman, and August Nelson, sister and brothers of

News Snapshots Of the Week

Inspector Sweeney of the New York police twenty officers and employees were seen. He is out on bail pending appeal.

General H two joined cuted by I men and H

the bride, who returned the same evening on 107.

WRIGHT-PHILLIPPE

Tuesday evening Feb. 25th, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. P. S. Phillippe at Wimbledon, occurred the marriage of their daughter, Audrey, to Edwin Wright of Courtenay.

The bride was prettily gowned in white messiline and carried a bouquet of brides roses. The groom wore the customary black.

They were attended by Otto Phillippe, brother of the bride, and Gale Wright, sister of the groom. After the congratulations were offered by the intimate friends and relatives fortunate enough to be present, a wedding supper was served.

The bride is a well known young lady of Wimbledon and well liked by all who know her. The groom is the son of S. K. Wright, residing northeast of town and is a highly respected young man.

Mr. and Mrs. Wright expect to go to housekeeping about the first of March on the groom's farm, nine miles northeast of