

Wedding Bells

LAURENCE PRADER AND MISS
CATHRYN WILLIAMSON UNITED IN MARRIAGE

A quiet wedding took place at Wimbledon Monday, Feb. 5th, in which Laurence Prader, of this place, and Miss Cathryn Williamson, formerly of New Rockford, were the principals. The ceremony was performed by Rev. E. E. Gruenstein of the German Reform church, the ring service being used. P. S. Baeder of New Rockford, a nephew of Mr. Prader, and Mrs. Gruenstein were in attendance.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Brewer, of Plainfield, Wis., who is the only parent now living, her father being deceased and a few years after his death her mother married Mr. Brewer. Of late years Miss Williamson has been a resident of New Rockford where she was one of the most popular young ladies of that place and has a host of friends whose well wishes accompany her.

The groom is one of Courtenay's popular and influential young business men who has made this city his home for a number of years and has found plenty of opportunities for good investments in this vicinity as will be readily seen from the fact that he has interests in the local confectionery store, drug store, garage, and many other enterprises both here and elsewhere. Mr. Prader is a thoroughly alive business man, always jovial and the kind of a man one feels the better for having met and spoken with.

The newly married couple spent a short honeymoon trip in the twin cities and Fargo, returning to Courtenay the fore part of this week, and have taken rooms at Mrs. Crawford's residence until more suitable quarters can be secured and they will then commence housekeeping.