

Married Saturday.

William Scharf, who has been residing with his parents south of Courtenay, and Miss Daisy Potts, also from south of town, were married at the German Lutheran church, Jamestown, last Saturday, Rev. Hess pronouncing them man and wife. Mr. Scharf is one of the best known young men in this vicinity, and an industrious farmer. Miss Potts has resided here about a year and has gained many friends during her stay, coming here from Illinois. The happy young people will go to house-keeping on a farm south of town, Mr. Scharf having purchased the old school building which stood three miles south, and has had the same moved on his land and it is now being made into a cozy home. The bride and groom were attended by Miss Lizzie Scharf, a sister of the groom, and by Rhinenart Trulke.
