

Wald-Schumacher

On Tuesday at high noon, at the farm home of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Schumacher south of town, occurred the marriage of their daughter, Clare Emile, to Ingvald Wald of Winger, Minn., Rev. C. H. Lueker officiating, using the ring ceremony.

The bride wore a dress of cream silk crepe de chine over white silk messaline. She carried white carnations.

The groom wore a suit of conventional black. Esther Schumacher, sister of the bride, acted as bridesmaid and Herbert Schumacher, a brother, acted as best man.

The wedding was a quiet family affair, witnessed by immediate relatives only.

The bride and groom are well known in this community and their many friends wish them hearty congratulations.

They left on the evening train for their new home at Winger, Minn., where they will reside on the groom's farm.

Leaving Courtenay

Dr. Rasmusson and family, who came here about two years ago, have decided to leave here, and will locate at Center, Oliver County, in the western part of the state.

The doctor was out there about ten days ago and found the best of encouragement from the peo-
