

Accident At Kensal

on Saturday afternoon, while playing in a barn, the five year old son of Ambrose Abledinger, who lives west of Kensal, fell from a haymow, striking his head, cutting the scalp open from ear to ear. The child suffered intense pain and was rushed to Kensal to Dr. Longstreth, who sent for Dr. Rasmusson of the city, who assisted in sewing up the scalp. He reports the injury a severe one but that the child will pull through.
