

Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Moore and Howard Bellnap, all of Wimbledon, had a narrow escape from serious injury Tuesday afternoon a short distance south of Courtenay. They were coming to town at a rapid rate of speed and turned out to pass another auto when in some manner one of the wheels on the machine driven by Mr. Moore came off. The car was quickly stopped and all escaped without injury.