

Mrs. W. W. Bemis, from north of town, was taken suddenly ill Saturday night with an attack of appendicitis. Her case became so alarming that it was decided best to take her to the hospital. She was taken to Sutton Sunday afternoon and the fast train on the Great Northern road was stopped at that station, where she was put on and taken to Fargo, accompanied by Mr. Bemis.