

School Notes.

A Hallowe'en party was given at the home of Mae Parsons. Several members of the high school attended.

Merritt Hoffman and Wallace Berg entertained a large number at the home of the latter. All reported a good time.

A mock election was held in the school library Tuesday morning. Printed ballots and booths were provided for the voters. All members of the high school, seventh and eighth grades were qualified voters.

Another pupil has enrolled in the eighth grade and one in the high school. This makes the present enrollment of the high school thirty-four.

A debate was held in Miss Marsh's room to prove that the mayor and council plan is more desirable than the commission plan of city government. The negative won.

A school exhibition was held at Kensal, last Saturday. Misses Robinson and Marsh, Mr. Chamberlain and a large number of pupils attended from Courtenay. Helen Scheidt won the first prize in the bread making contest and Louise Larson in the sewing contest.
