

Ed Deverell, the popular young clerk at F. G. Lundeen's department store, has resigned his position and accepted a job as traveling salesman for the American Tobacco company. He expects to make his headquarters either at Devils Lake or Minot, whichever place will be the most convenient. Good luck to you, Ed.

---