

Mrs. Martin Falk, who was taken to a hospital in Fargo a short time ago, arrived home Wednesday. She is greatly improved and was able to get about without assistance, which was impossible for her to do when taken to the hospital. Her many friends will be glad to learn that her case proved to be nothing serious. She expects to return to Fargo in a few weeks for further treatment.