

George Farries and family of Williston, came in by auto Saturday and spent Sunday and Monday with old friends. Mr. Farries was, up to few years ago, editor and proprietor of this paper and was a resident for some ten years. Mr. Farries is now editor and proprietor of the Williston Herald, one of the leading papers of the northern part of the state. They left here Tuesday morning for Sheldon, where Mrs. Farries will visit with the home folks, and Mr. Farries will go on to Grand Forks, where he will attend the Editorial Association meeting on Friday and Saturday.
