

New Manager

Wednesday of this week brot a change in one of the business houses of our city. C. T. Hartho who was formerly Soo agent here and up to a few days ago with a bank in Wimbledon, has purchased the stock and good will of C. J. Lindh's confectionery, and is now in full charge.

Mr. Hartho will run the place under the name of the Waldorf, and will keep the place a strictly first-class one, and will keep an up-to-date stock at all times. He is well known in this territory and we bespeak for him a nice line of business.

Mr. Lindh has not decided where he will locate. He expects to leave in a few days for a visit with his parents in Jamestown, and a little later on may go west to remain.
