

Jim Lake

Esler school opened January 12, with a full attendance. The pupils were all glad to welcome their teacher back after an absence of three months.

Andrew Forsburg returned to his home last Saturday, much improved in health after his operation at a hospital in Valley City.

Will Miller received a telephone message last week from his home in Wisconsin that his mother had passed away.

George Maynard and wife gave a delightful party at their home January 6, in honor of their guest, Miss Fred Aggale. All in attendance reported a fine time.

R. H. Koves spent Monday at the C. D. Wood home.

Miss Maggie Lyle of Coopers-town, is spending some time with her friend, Mrs. Arthur Burleson.

Anton Feckler, J. M. Budish and J. B. Lenski autoed to Pingree, Tuesday.

Mrs. C. D. Wood called at the L. Holmes residence last Tuesday.

W. W. Bingham and family and J. M. Buddish were entertained at the C. D. Wood home last Sunday.

Jos. Weber and family and Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Bingham formed a card party at the Frank Schlect home last Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Maynard are spending several days at the home of Mrs. Maynard's sister, Mrs. Andy Dennis, of Edmunds.

Miss Martha Paplinski of Courtenay, drove over from Pingree, last Monday, having spent several days with her sister, Mrs. Frank Decker.

James Hanson returned to this state last Monday and appears to like his new place with Frank Schlect.

Mr. R. H. Koves drove to Kensal Tuesday to meet a niece who came down from Carpio to visit him and his family.

Miss Marie Webber is spending the week with her aunt, Mrs. Frank Schlect.

Miss Mary Woll returned to her school here Sunday after spending her vacation with her parents at Barnes, N. D.

Mrs. Fred Ferguson and little son returned home from Fargo last week having spent New Years with her mother, Mrs. Anna Reibe at that place.

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Koves and family were entertained at the Frank Schlect home last Sunday.