

shoulder last Sunday afternoon from a fall. It is not known at the present time whether it is a dislocation or a sprain, as the injury is too painful to allow a thorough examination by the doctor.

The Misses Feckler and Erickson entertained last Friday evening at the Feckler home to a large number of guests. The musicale given by the Misses McBrides, Dick and Walsh, of Wimbledon, was thoroughly enjoyed, the time passing away only too quickly. The color scheme was pink and green, pink carnations and smilax adorning the tables; the colors were also carried out on the programs for the musicale. At midnight a dainty lunch was served, after which all enjoyed a social hour, each one then departing for their homes, having enjoyed the evening to the fullest extent.

Paul Bunce, manager for the Northwestern Telephone Co., was here from Fargo Tuesday looking after business matters.

The ball game played here Sunday afternoon between Wimbledon and the home team was won by the home boys, the score being 3 to 2.

Mrs. Wm. Ladvig, of Mercer, arrived Wednesday evening for a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Guslander.

News from Jim Lake

Wm. Long was struck by lightning and instantly killed last Friday while at work at the farm of W. Walker southeast of Kensal. The drill which he was using was torn to fragments but the horses were uninjured. Mr. Long was well known in this neighborhood, having worked for several seasons for different farmers here, and his sudden death came as a shock to all who knew him.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Schlect attended church at Kensal last Sunday.

John Buddish spent Sunday at the H. A. Hammersteadt home.

Miss Margaret Jackman, teacher of Lyon School No. 2, closed a very successful term of school last Friday and departed on Sunday for her home at Watson, Minn.

Miss Gertrude Krubeck spent Sunday with her sister, Minnie, at the Jos. Hicks home.

John M. Buddish transacted business in Kensal on Monday.

A. E. Darkenwald of Wimbledon spent Monday at the home of C. D. Wood, having driven overland.

R. H. Koves visited at the Matt Bouris home Sunday afternoon.

Miss Jackman and the Misses Dora and Anna Forsburg spent last Sunday at the Hammersteadt home.

Fred Ferguson and the Steele Bros., called at Charlie Wood's on Sunday afternoon.

George Maynard was hauling hay from "Stony Brook" last Thursday.

John B. Louski spent Thursday at the E. D. Wood home.

R. H. Kous made a business trip to Kensal Tuesday.

Miss Minnie Kruback spent Wednesday at the parental home.

Anton Feckler autoed out from Kensal to look after farming interests here last Monday.

What Special for F

- 20 pound
- 1 pound
- 2 pound
- 1 pound
- 5 Bars
- 2 Cans
- 3 pound
- 8 pound
- 1 Bottle
- 3 Packs
- 1 "
- 4 "
- 3 "
- 2 "

Wi

Bulk Garden Seeds

