

Jim Lake

The new barn being built by Martin Homuth is rapidly nearing completion. It is a fine building, and will be 12x64 feet built to a height of 45 feet. Up stairs he will have room for about 50 tons of hay. He will have one of the best barns in this part of the country when completed.

John Riden has resided his house and making other improvements.

The young people and a number of older ones who feel young are planning on a fine dance at the home of Andrew Forsberg next Saturday night, Nov. 22. Everyone is invited and a crowd is expected. Music will be furnished by R. Young, violin and Arnold Homuth, cornet. Another dance is planned for the following Saturday.

Miss Myrtle Siltman is the popular teacher in the Lyons school house.

Plowing has been resumed around here. Farr Brothers started up their power outfit last Monday, pulling eight plows. The engine got stuck several times in mud, but they managed to turn over considerable ground in good shape. Wm. McClary was also out with five horses and gang plow. There was no frost in the ground on Monday.