

Kensal News Items

Archie Hicks left Monday morning for Illinois where he will remain during the winter months.

The Misses Annie Jones and Mable Peterson of Bismarck, Sundayed here.

Grant Partlow and wife and Chas. Collison Sr., and wife left Tuesday evening for points in Minnesota and Wisconsin for a short visit.

The Misses Ethel McDonald and Anna Croonquist of Valley City, Sundayed here at the Croonquist home, having come up with Dr. McDonald in the auto Saturday evening. Dr. McDonald was called here to consult with Dr. Longstreth in regard to Grandpa McKinnons illness.

O. M. Wilkinson and family enjoyed a visit the latter part of last week from Mr. Wilkinson's brother of Fessenden.

The many friends of Mrs. L. B. Newbold will be grieved to learn of her death at the Jamestown hospital at one a.m. Thursday, Nov. 1st. The remains were taken east the same day by Mr. Newbold, interment being made at Philadelphia the old home of Mr. and Mrs. Newbold.

Mrs. Arnold Radke and baby arrived from Keoma, Alta., on Wednesday morning for a visit at the Fred Radke home. Arnold will come later to spend the holidays at home.

Mrs. John Cysewski accompanied her sister, Miss Molly Gaffney, to Bordulac on Tuesday where they visited with friends. Mrs. Cysewski returned home the same evening, Miss Molly remaining for a longer visit.

Mrs. Albert Hanson entertained at 6 o'clock dinner on Saturday evening to the entire faculty and the Misses Glancys, Thompson, and Christensen.

O. M. Wilkinson was appointed president of the Kensal school board last week by the county superintendent, Mary E. McGinnis, to succeed O. E. Holmes who recently resigned. Mr. Wilkinson assumed his new duties on Monday evening last at the special meeting held by the school board.

Mrs. Underkloffer of Bowman, N. D., is the guest at the W. O. Tripp home south of Kensal.

Miss Anna Landa entertained the Q. A. M. Embroidery club at the T. R. Olemo home on Thursday evening Nov., 21st, the hostess served a dainty lunch to the guest at midnight.

Rob. Hall, a former operator here passed thru Kensal on Wednesday morning en route to Keomare where he will again take up work with the Soo.

Miss Lydia Eckert of Valley City, spent Thanksgiving here with friends.

J. W. Murphy Sundayed in Valley City.

Miss Stella Paplinski and Frank Decker of the Pingree vicinity were married on Nov., 24th, at the brides home north of Courtenay. They left the same evening for Newton, Iowa, the home of Mr. Decker, where they will make an extended visit with relatives.

Miss Benedict and Mr. Jackson of Enderlin, were guests at the Yonker home on Thanksgiving day.

Mrs. Geo. Leete returned home on Tuesday evening from Robison, N. D., where she spent a week visiting with her son, Fred, who is cashier in the state bank at that place.

Dr. W. T. Sawyer, who has been located temporarily at Kensal for sometime, has now permanently located at Pingree, and will make regular visits to Kensal, two days out of each week.

J. E. Sou spent Thanksgiving with friends at Carrington.

R. B. Cox of Valley City and Ed Cox of Courtenay, transacted business in Kensal on Wednesday.

Atty. Kelly transacted business here Wednesday.