

Kensal Items.

F. L. Nichols transacted business in Courtenay between trains Saturday evening.

A. L. Casey of Valley City spent Saturday evening here with friends.

Miss Maude Lenz Sundayed with relatives at Bordulac.

J. O. Johnson a former citizen of Kensal, but now of Douglas, N. D. was in town Wednesday evening between trains.

Wrs. Wm. Spreen and little son Freddie returned home from Jacksonville, Ill., Friday evening.

Miss Christine Follansbee went down to Valley City Saturday morning, remaining over Sunday with her sister, Miss Edith, who has been very ill for the past week. As soon as possible Miss Edith will be taken to Jamestown to the home of her sister, Mrs. Paul Gilger.

The Misses Blanche Smith and Marion Robinson of Courtenay came up Friday afternoon to attend the school programme which was given that evening; Miss Smith returned home on Saturday, Miss Robinson remaining over Sunday at the E. R. Robinson home.

Sheriff Romer of Jamestown was looking after business matters here on Thursday.

Mr. Davies who has been visiting at the Croonquist home, left last week for Wainwright, Alta., where he is working on the C. P. R. out of that terminal.

Miss Birdie McNeil of Elysian, Minn., arrived last Saturday morning and began her duties in the Johnson school Monday morning.

Rev. Richmond returned from his eastern trip the latter part of last week.

Mrs. F. L. Thompson and daughters Vera and June, of Carrington, attended the programme here Friday evening, returning home Saturday.

Mrs. Thoms of Enderlin was the guest of Miss Cecil Rosbrook Saturday and Sunday.

O. M. Wilkinson returned home from Minneapolis last Wednesday morning, but has not entirely recovered from his recent operation; after leaving the hospital he suffered a relapse, which left him very weak, and necessitated his return for another week, making his stay in Minneapolis longer than he expected.

Glenn Farrar transacted business in Carrington on Monday.

R. J. Hunt came up from Courtenay Monday afternoon, for a short visit with friends, leaving on the evening train for Minneapolis, from which place he will leave for Washington.

Mrs. Blocher came up from Bordulac on Monday to attend Mrs. P. J. Stone, who has been very ill since last Sunday.

Mrs. G. Richardson and little son Gordon of Minot arrived on Saturday evening and spent Sunday with Mr. Richardson who is night operator at the Soo.

Mrs. Theo. M. Hjorth entertained at a 12 o'clock luncheon on Friday evening at the close of the school programme; covers were laid for ten, the guests being the entire faculty, Mrs. Hammette of Livingston, Montana, Mrs. F. L. Thompson of Carrington, Glayds Thompson, and Harley Arnett.

C. A. D. Kolb transacted business in Carrington on Thursday.

Atty. Kneeland of Jamestown was here last Friday conducting a hearing in which Oscar Wright was arraigned for the illegal sale of intoxicating liquors and he was bound over to the district court under a $500 bail. Being unable to furnish same, he was taken to Jamestown Saturday by Marshall Collison where he will be confined in the county jail until trial.

J. E. Williams of Wild Horse, Colo., a former Kensal business man, was renewing his many old acquaintances here the first of the week.

Carl Umlauf of Fergus Falls, Minn., is visiting at the Gus. Guenther home.

Rev. W. H. Hynes went to New Rockford Monday where he will assist with a series of special meetings.

F. L. Thompson of Carrington was in Kensal between trains on Thursday evening.

Geo. McConville, of the Fargo Courier-News, was a business visitor in Kensal Tuesday.

Dr. Longstreth reports the birth of a daughter at the home of Hans Horgan on Friday, and a son at the P. J. Stone home on Sunday.

The lecture given last Thursday evening in the M. E. church by Rev. Moore of Grand Forks, entitled "To and Fro in Rome", was listened to by a large and interested audience.

Miss Cecil Rosbrook entertained on Saturday evening in honor of her sister, Mrs. Hammette of Livingston, Mont., and Mrs. Thoms of Enderlin. The evening was spent enjoying various amusements which the hostess had planned, and at 10 o'clock a dainty luncheon was served.

Mrs. T. J. Walsh of Courtenay attended Mass here Sunday, and was the guest of Mrs. F. O. Peterson.

Fred Fetz spent Sunday evening with friends here.

Lauritz Sorenson of Courtenay attended the dance given here by the Danish Brotherhood.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Brown were passengers to Courtenay Sunday evening for a visit, with relatives.

Mrs. Geo. E. Nelson went to Jamestown Sunday evening for a visit with her sister, Mr. Fred Drawz.

Frank Heany spent Sunday with friends in Wimbledon.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Robinson of Courtenay visited with their son, E. R. and family on Sunday.

Mrs. Chris Bredahl received a letter the first of the week from her husband at Husters Hot Springs, stating that he was improving and was now able to walk without the aid of crutches. This is very encouraging news which we are all glad to learn.

Theo. Boelther returned Saturday evening from Minneapolis where he spent the winter. During his absence he completed a course in gas traction engineering, and for which he received his diploma, entitling him to a place among the ranks of the full fledged engineers.

The programme given Friday evening by the scholars of the Kensal school was a decided success. Each room contributed several numbers, and each scholar executed thier part perfectly; every number was appreciated and applauded by the packed house. "The Watermelon Coons" were compelled to repeat their number, so great was the applause. Much credit is due the faculty for their untiring efforts in producing such an excellent entertainment of this kind which was thoroughly enjoyed by all, as there was something to entertain both the young and old alike. $61.00 was realized, which after expenses have been paid, will leave a neat sum with which books will be purchased to add to the school library.

H. P. Neilson of Carrington attended the Danish Brotherhood dance here Saturday evening.

The dance given on Monday evening by the I. O. O. F. lodge was well patronized, everyone present enjoying a good time; music was furnished by the Pingree orchestra.

Geo. E. Berg Sundayed with his parents at Courtenay.

Try an ad. in the Gazette