

ter, that you have been losing money by neglecting this important feature of the farm.

Kensal News Items

Alfred and Clarence Kelson spent Sunday with their parents at Courtenay.

J. D. Schlect left for a western trip on Saturday morning. He will go to Canada and from there to Washington and Oregon.

The bowery dance at Anton Pederson Saturday evening was well attended and enjoyed by all present. The Kensal orchestra furnished the music and a number of the town people were present.

A daughter was born to R. H. Koves and wife on July 19.

Mrs. C. J. Onstad left Sunday evening for her home at Northfiel, Minn. Mrs. Onstad has visited with her parents and many friends here for the past five weeks.

Mrs. J. J. Clancy visited at her fathers home at Carrington Saturday and Sunday.

Jimmie Ryan left for his home Friday evening at Kilbourn, Wis.

The dance given by the Kensal orchestra at I. O. O. F. hall was attended by a good lively crowd that proceeded to make the evening one to be remembered with pleasure. The music was the best and the dancers enjoyed themselves until early morning.

A farewell dinner was given for Father Bierns to the members of the church construction association at the Anton Feckler home on Sunday afternoon. About ten members were present to enjoy the bounteous and tasty dinner prepared for them.

Ed. Smith, a former lumber dealer of Kensal, is visiting with friends here for a few days. Mr. Smith is now located at Watrous, Sask., and is returning from a visit to his home in Iowa.

Carl Nelson went to Montana Sunday morning to buy up some horses.

Miss Stacia Nieberlie came up from Valley City Friday evening to attend the dance and visit with Miss Anna Landa.

Otis Lee of Butte, Mont., visited with his aunt and family Monday and Tuesday.

A new addition is just about completed at the rear of the Cox-Nelson hardware store, which will give the concern some needed room.

Mrs. J. S. Buzzard of Huntington, Ind., is visiting with her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Fulton.

Mrs. Ed. Johnson, left Wednesday morning for Minneapolis and Wisconsin for a summer outing. She was accompanied by her little daughter, Ruby.

Mrs. L. O. Lohrke, formerly of Courtenay, visited with Mrs. Carl Nelson, Friday.

The Misses Irene and Lyda Clancy entertained at dinner Thursday in honor of Misses Emma Johnson and Rose Bartosh, who are spending their summer vacations with their parents. About fourteen young ladies were present and enjoyed a most delightful evening.

Anton Feckler went to Fargo Monday morning on business and to attend the opening days of the state fair.

Fire started in the Methodist parsonage, Wednesday, that did damage to about $150. An oil stove used in the kitchen started the fire and had gained considerable headway before it was noticed by Mrs. Hynes, who was in another room with the children. The fire department was called out and soon had the fire under control. The loss is covered by insurance.

Anyone desiring steam engine repairing done, notify Sam Turner. 21tf

NOT ALL FREE

"Going to the horse show?"

"What do they do at horse shows - break horses?"

"No, break the visitors."

"BUY IT AT HOME"

TOO BAD IT HAD TO RAIN. I WANTED TO TAKE KITTY WALKIN' THIS AFTERNOON.