

Kensal Items.

Miss Birdie McNeil returned from Elysian, Minn. Tuesday morning where she had been called to attend the funeral of her sister.

Joe LoQua has returned from Canada and will engage in the carpenter work here during the summer as usual.

The Misses Grace Clancey and Mabel Frederickson and the Messrs. Johnnie Schlect and Dan Clancy attended the basket ball games at Courtenay last Friday evening.

Oscar Croonquist has returned to Wainwright, Alta. to continue his work on the railroad as brake man.

Mrs. Fred Kuhry, Mrs. Walsmitt and Mr. Otto Fenske of Kindersly, Alta., arrived Friday to attend the funeral of their sister Mrs. Hans Horgen.

Mrs. Paul Bonney and children are visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Sloan. Mrs. Bonney is from Garfield, Wash.

About fourteen attended the La Follette lecture at Valley City Thursday, going down on the special and returning enthusiastically in favor of Bob.

J. J. Brom transacted business in Wimbledon the latter part of last week.

Mrs. Martin Larson went to Valley City Saturday to consult the doctors at the Platon hospital in regard to blood poisoning which had gained considerable headway in the left arm. Although the case was found to be very serious, Mrs. Larson hopes to be able to return home after a week's treatment.

J. O. Hanchett of Harvey lectured to a large crowd in the I. O. O. F. Hall Friday evening and all present seemed to enjoy it fully.

On March 3rd, a disastrous fire occurred at Buffalo, S. Dakota, which destroyed $25,000 worth of property. Among the losers was P. O. Sletten, his general store and residence being a total loss. The stock and store valued at $10,000, was covered by an insurance of $7,500 and the house by insurance of $1,000.

Frank Heaney was called to Olivia, Minn., Saturday evening by the sudden death of his grandmother.

Mrs. E. R. Robinson spent Sunday with relatives at Courtenay.

A. B. McNulty returned from the East Friday and will work for Rogt. O'Neil the coming season.

The sale at M. P. Christiansen's farm twelve miles north of town, held Monday, on all machinery and stock, was one of the most successful held this spring. Mr. Christiansen plans on moving to a warmer climate.

The Brown Brothers, who recently disposed of their farm stock and implements, will leave this week; Oscar will go to Carrington and Neil will go to Courtenay for the present.

A quiet wedding was solemnized at the home of Thos. North on Sunday afternoon, between Miss Lena Ingbreton and Mr. George Benson, Rev. H. W. Hynes officiating. Both young people are well and favorably known here, having made their homes here for the past few years and their numerous friends wish them all happiness in their married life.

Wm. Spreen and family are moving onto the farm nine miles north of town lately vacated by Dedrick Jensen. Mr. Jensen will move his family to Canada where he has taken land.

Noble Shockley arrived the latter part of last week and will remain here during the farming season and assist his brother S. C. with his extensive farming operations in the hills.

George Berg Sundayed with his parents in Courtenay.

Miss Katherine B. Steover, the photographer from Carrington, made her regular visit here last Saturday and Sunday. It is Miss Steover's intention at the present to make her visits to Ken-

GEORGE M. YOUNG

Leading candidate for Congress to represent the Second Congressional District of North Dakota and a pronounced "winner" in the coming campaign.

sal every third Saturday and Sunday of each month.

Anton Feckler went to Fargo on Tuesday morning, where he will remain for a few days on business and pleasure; Miss Georgie will return home with him.

J. M. Patton of Watertown, S. D., publisher of the Odd Fellow World, was a visitor in town on Monday.

Miss Louise Hjorth went up to Carrington on Saturday evening and spent Sunday at the F. L. Thompson home.

F. L. Thompson of Carrington, was down on Saturday between trains.

H. P. Neilson of Carrington, was in Kensal Saturday evening between trains.

Glenn Farrar transacted business in Carrington on Tuesday.

Miss Alma Ibsen went up to Carrington last week and will remain there indefinitely.

Harley Arnett went down to Rogers on Friday evening on business for the Christopherson Co.

The Christopherson Co., and The Kensal Cash stores have their Spring stock of millinery on display.

FROM LAST WEEK

Miss Jeanette Carmody left Tuesday evening for Kenmare on a business trip.

A. J. Thompson transacted business in Carrington on Wednesday.

Messrs Strandness and Geo. Bowler of Courtenay were looking after business here on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Brewer and son Arthur returned home Wednesday morning from their western trip.

Chas Pierce and family were visitors in Carrington on Tuesday.

Glenn Farrar was a business visitor in Carrington on Tuesday.

E. R. Robinson of the Kensal Cash Store, accompanied a shipment of potatoes to Minneapolis last Sunday.

Mr. Sigrud Holten of Courtenay was checked in here on Tuesday as agent for the O. & M. Elevator Co.

Miss Marion Robinson of Courtenay spent Sunday here at the E. R. Robinson home.

Deputy Sheriff Spanton of Jamestown, was here last Saturday conducting the Sheriff's sale held here that afternoon.

A new operator has been added to the force at the Soo depot, in the person of Mr. Williams, who arrived on Sunday morning and is operator on the third trick, Mr. Richardson having been transferred to the second trick.

S. C. Shockley transacted business in Carrington on Wednesday.

The people of Kensal were shocked on Sunday to learn that Mrs. Hans Horgen had passed away at about noon that day; Mrs. Horgen had been suffering for several weeks with a severe attack of pneumonia, and had been making improvement, but suffered a relapse which resulted fatally; particulars will be given next week.

J. C. Ashley was in Carrington on Tuesday.

The infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Chmelik passed away on Wednesday morning.

Miss Nellie O'Neill left Tuesday evening for Calgary, Alta., where she will visit for some time with relatives.

Miss Birdie McNeil received a telegram on Wednesday, which informed her that her sister had passed away at Brooten, Minn. Miss McNeil left for that place on Wednesday evening.

Messrs. Cox and Gorthy of Courtenay, were business visitors in Kensal on Wednesday.

Mrs. C. J. Croonquist returned on Tuesday evening from an extended visit with relatives in Minnesota.

McCall's Magazine and McCall Patterns For Women

Have More Friends than any other magazine or patterns. McCall's is the reliable Fashion Guide monthly in one million one hundred thousand homes. Besides showing all the latest designs of McCall Patterns, each issue is brimful of sparkling short stories and helpful information for women.

Save Money and Keep in Style by subscribing for McCall's Magazine at once. Costs only 50 cents a year, including any one of the celebrated McCall Patterns free.

McCall Patterns Lead all others in style, fit, simplicity, economy and number sold. More dealers sell McCall Patterns than any other two makes combined. None higher than 15 cents. Buy from your dealer, or by mail from

McCALL'S MAGAZINE

236-246 W. 37th St., New York City.

Not-Receipt Copy, Premium Catalogue and Pattern Catalogue free on request.

BOUER & MILNE

REAL ESTATE, LOANS AND COLLECTIONS

I sell Northwestern Mutual Life Insurance. It is the best.

Will arrange all preliminaries for Auction Sales. If you are thinking of selling out come in and see me.

COURTENAY, NORTH DAKOTA