

Kensal Items.

Geo. Berg transacted business in Courtenay between trains Saturday evening.

Mr. Winters of Mandan, was a guest at the C. E. Thayer home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Neilson of Carrington, visited friends here Sunday.

Mrs. Julius Fredrickson left Monday morning for the cities where she joined Mr. Fredrickson, who went down to St. Paul the latter part of last week with a car of stock. Mr. and Mrs. Fredrickson will spend a few days in the cities.

E. J. Nelson returned from the east last Monday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Robinson Sundayed at the Turner A. Moore home in Wimbledon.

Leslie Jones of Courtenay, visited friends and relatives here Monday.

Erwin Claflin was a passenger to Courtenay Sunday evening.

Frank Heaney Sundayed in Wimbledon.

E. R. Robinson was a Courtenay visitor Monday evening.

Ambrose Ableidinger and family returned home Friday morning after having spent several months in Wisconsin.

Mrs. Barnes and little daughter, Alice, of Dodson, Mont., were guests at the Thos. Nihill home last week. They visited with Mrs. Rebecca Barnes at Williston enroute to their Montana home.

Mrs. Frank Glasner and little son Ralph, returned last Wednesday evening from their visit with relatives in the cities.

L. H. Larson of Courtenay, was in town last Wednesday.

Rev. H. W. Hynes was called to Donnybrook last Friday morning, by a telegram announcing the serious illness of his mother, and was with her until her death, which occurred Monday evening. Mrs. H. W. Hynes left on Tuesday morning to be present at the funeral.

Mesdames F. L. Nichols and J. S. Cysewski were visiting at the F. L. Thompson home in Carrington last Thursday.

Mrs. J. C. Wold of Jamestown, arrived Saturday evening to visit with relatives over Sunday.

Mrs. Hans Horgen, who has been suffering with a severe attack of pneumonia, is steadily improving.

Geo. E. Berg spent Sunday evening with friends in Wimbledon.

Mesdames Alma Smith and Will Jones of Courtenay, spent Tuesday here with their mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. Edward McKinnon.

Anton Feckler transacted business in Wimbledon on Wednesday.

It was learned the first of the week that Melvin Harding, who lives north of Kensal, had been taken to a Fargo hospital. The nature of his illness has not been learned.

F. L. Thompson of Carrington, visited friends here last Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Thompson returned from their extensive western trip last Saturday morning. While Mr. and Mrs. Thompson both enjoyed the beauties of the west, they were glad to get back to North Dakota.

Miss Marie Jorgensen and Hans C. Hanson, who were united in marriage in Jamestown last week, were tendered a reception by their many friends at their home on Saturday evening. Dancing was the past time of the evening, and at midnight luncheon was served by the friends of the bride and groom.

John Steele of Valley City, visited friends here last Saturday.

An epidemic of chickenpox is making the rounds of Kensal, and a good many are confined to their homes as a result. Miss Blanche Richarts, teacher of the seventh and eighth grades in the public school, is among the afflicted, and her pupils have been dismissed for this week, as a substitute could not be secured.

GEORGE M.

Leading candidate for Congressional District of North Dakota "winner" in the coming campaign.

Announcements were received Sunday by friends of Miss Sadie Holmes of Sanborn, Iowa, announcing her marriage to Herbert S. Dean, on February 28th. Miss Holmes was one of Kensal's most popular young ladies during her stay here, at which time she made her home with Rev. and Mrs. Flint. Mr. and Mrs. Dean will be at home after March 15, at Boydon, Iowa.

Geo. Keeping left Monday evening for Leal, where he will assist in the Rogers Lumber company's yard for several days.

Miss Alma Johnson returned to Fargo, Tuesday evening, after spending several days here with her sister, Mrs. Hilma Kolb.

Mrs. Nick Nelson is enjoying a visit this week from her mother, Mrs. Dan Chance of Oberon, who arrived on Monday evening, and her aunt, Mrs. Earl Chance, also of Oberon, who arrived on Tuesday morning from Leal, where she has been visiting with friends for several days.

A. J. Thompson of Hosmer, B. C., arrived on Wednesday morning for a visit with the home folks.

Fred W. Leete of Robinson, N. D., came over on Wednesday to attend the Leap Year dance.

Mrs. Peterson and Miss Hilda Nelson of Leal were guests at the Knud Christensen home on Wednesday.

Clarence Isaacson of Valley City attended the Leap Year dance here Wednesday evening.

Political Advertisements

ANNOUNCEMENT

I hereby announce myself a candidate for Judge of the Fifth Judicial District, State of North Dakota, at the primaries, and respectfully solicit the support of all persons who believe me competent for and worthy of the place.

Lee Combs

For County Auditor

I hereby announce myself as a candidate for nomination to the office of County Auditor for Stutsman County at the June Primary Election on the Republican ticket. If successful, I will give all of my time and attention to the office, the same as I have in the past. Trusting my ad-