

News From Our Kensal Correspondent

Harry Cornell of McHenry Sundayed here.

Miss Nora MacEwen of Jamestown was a visitor here last Saturday.

Mrs. J. C. Wold and children arrived from Jamestown on Saturday and are visiting at the Wm. Walker home.

Miss Brewer leaves Thursday morning for Hingham, Mont., where she will make her residence on her claim near there.

Chas. Collison left Tuesday morning for Garrison, where he will assist in the Langworthy Lumber Company's yard at that place for about a month.

Mr. Vaughn received a visit the latter part of last week from his parents, who live in McHenry. They were on their way to Bismarek for a visit with relatives.

Miss Irene Myers closed a successful term of school in the Esler district last Friday, and left on Saturday morning accompanied by Miss Nogosek, for her home at New Home.

Jens Anderson, who has been the assistant at the Kensal Lumber company's yard here for sometime left on Monday morning for Guthrie, N. D., where he has accepted a position as manager of their yard at that place. Mr. Anderson was succeeded by Ben Wilkinson, a brother of O. M.

O. G. Emmons Sundayed here at the O. B. Christopherson home.

Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Thompson of Carrington passed thru here on 106 Saturday evening enroute to the twin cities for a short visit.

Dr. Longstreth and wife were in Jamestown on Monday and Tuesday, the doctor attending a meeting of the Medical Association while there.

The bazaar and supper held by the ladies of the M. E. aid society in the church parlors last Thursday was well attended, the ladies realizing $100 or better.

Mr. Winfield Sanborn of Lime Springs, Iowa visited between trains last Thursday evening at the Glen Farrar home, he and Mr. Farrar being old friends in Lime Springs. Mr. Sanborn is a commercial traveler with headquarters at Fargo, to which place he will soon take his family to reside.

The entertainment given last Friday evening by the McCauley Entertainers under the auspices of the high school was the best and only entertainment of its kind Kensal people have enjoyed this season. Miss Spalding was both a vocalist and pianist, being a musician of unusual talent and ability. She is the possessor of a clear and sweet voice, and her numbers, both vocal and