

always keep the experience while the laborer spends the money shortly after receiving it.

Kensal News Items

Miss Anna Brewer left Sunday evening for Valley City where she is employed in the Gray department store.

Mrs. J. E. Jones left for Grand Rapids, Mich., Sunday evening, upon receipt of a telegram stating that her mother had passed away at that place Saturday night.

Herbert Sherman is the new second trick operator at the Soo line.

W. J. Haney of Olivia, Minn., visited with his son, Wilfred, Saturday and Sunday. Mr. Haney of Glenfield, came over and spent Sunday with his father and friends.

Mrs. J. E. Jones and daughter Edith, who have been spending a month with relatives in Jamestown, returned home Thursday evening.

The Misses Follansbee, Wilson, Erickson, Christensen, Jones, Mauritson and Rosebrook visited and shopped in Courtenay between trains 106 and 107.

J. W. Murphy of the Cox-Nelson Co., Sundayed with friends at Valley City.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Drawz of Jamestown autoed over Sunday morning and spent the day with Mrs. Drawz sister, Mrs. G. E. Nelson.

Mrs. Jennie White left on train 150 Sunday morning for Florida, where she will spend the winter. Mrs. White will visit with friends in Alabama en route.

Mrs. Gustave Gunther entertained the Ladies Embroidery Club last Friday afternoon at her home. The afternoon was spent in sewing and conversation after which an elaborate luncheon was served.

Ed. Putnam made a business trip to Montana last week.

Carl Nelson is in Turtle Lake endeavoring to get his crop at that place threshed. Owing to the heavy fall of snow in that section the threshers are experiencing considerable trouble in getting the grain threshed.

Miss Hazel Richardson left for her home at Jamestown Saturday. Miss Richardson has been visiting with her aunt, Mrs. Buttz for the past week.

Wilfred Heaney resigned his position here at the Farmers and Merchants bank and left on Monday for Glenfield, where he has accepted the position of assistant cashier under his brother, Frank, of the State Bank there.

Mrs. Pete Gaffney is visiting with her daughter, Mrs. Jno. Oysewski.

Miss Belle Wilson is enjoying a visit from her father and sister, both of Larimore, who arrived Monday night.

Mrs. L. B. Newbold was taken to the Jamestown hospital last week, suffering from a severe attack of stomach trouble and general break down. Altho her condition is serious her many friends hope to hear of a change for the better in a few days.

Miss Edith Chance, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Nick Nelson for the past three weeks returned to her home at Oberon last Thursday morning.

LEFT FOR WISCONSIN—

Mrs. E. L. Skaar and children departed last Tuesday evening for their future home at Mt. Horen, Wis. Mrs. Skaar located here some sixteen years ago and has been a resident continually since coming here when one was sure to receive a large amount of hardships in their struggles to obtain and improve land. Mrs. Skaar is one of the many around here who have, through their determination to endure the hardships, become owners of as fine land as can be found and have been well paid for their efforts. She is one of the best known ladies in this section and leaves behind her a large number of friends.

SALE OF LAND.

Notice Is Hereby Given, That under the authority of an order of sale granted by the Hon. Jno. U. Hemmi, Judge of the County Court of the County of Stutsman, in the State of North Dakota, dated the 24th day of October, A. D. 192, the undersigned, the administrator of the estate of Charles Ernest Raney, late of the Village of Courtenay, in the County of Stutsman and State of North Dakota, deceased, will sell at private sale to the highest bidder, for cash, subject to encumbrance on the farm land and such encumbrance consisting of one mortgage for $4500.00 and one for $2000.00, subject to confirmation by the judge of said county court, the following described land, to-wit:—

Lot two, (2), in block eight, (8,) in the original townsite plat of the Village of Courtenay, and the west one-half, W1-2, of section nineteen, (19,) in township one hundred forty-three, (143,) north of range sixty-two, (62)