PUBLISHED ON THURSDAY OF EACH WEEK

Entered as second class matter at the post-office at Courtenay, North Dakota, under the Act of Congress of March 3, 1879.

All copies for advertising, local readers and notices of any kind must be sent in not later than Wednesday evening if to be inserted in the succeeding issue of each week.

There are too many people who seem to believe that every move to better a town should come from some man of means; that all the labor and expense should be borne by them and that their own thoughts, energy and money should be selfishly guarded. The forerunner of privilege is duty, and it is every citizen's duty to act in accordance with his privileges. It may not be more than to take the home paper, to turn out to vote, or to say a pleasant word at the right time, but they should do it. Whether fortunate in the possession of this world's goods or not, do your share. It's the little things that count.

Kensal News Items

Mrs. Nellie Bishop, who has been visiting at the Ohas. Eaton home, left Monday morning for her home in Minneapolis.

Miss Clara Mauritsen left last Thursday evening for Shelly, Minn., to attend the wedding of a cousin. She returned to Kensal Tuesday evening.

Mrs. E. A. Uhe of Valley City, Sundayed with her parents here.

John Hanness of Minneapolis, arrived last Friday evening and spent Saturday with friends. He is on his way to Western Canada for a visit with friends. He will be remembered by many as he made his headquarters here at one time, having a run as mail clerk.

Sidrud Ringerud of Enderlin, was calling on friends here last week, having resumed his run as mail clerk through here after a months vacation at his home in Portland, N. D.

The Misses Myrtle Linderman and Rose O'Neil were shopping in Valley City last Saturday.

Rev. H. Hynes returned from Williston Monday evening, where he had been attending the conference. Rev. Hynes has been returned to Kensal as pastor for another year, which is exceedingly pleasing news to the people of this community, he being such an earnest worker, not for the interests of the church alone, but for the general welfare of the community as well. We are glad to welcome Rev. Hynes back.

Jesse Clark, who has been acting as chauffer for the Nelson-Roe Auto company, left last Friday evening for Valley City, having resigned his position here.

Miss Lucy Hammersteadt is the new waitress at the Hjorth "Soo" restaurant, having resumed her new duties last week.

M. Hjorth and family are now making their home in the rooms over the Security State bank, having moved there last week.

Marie Davy and brother, Henry, of Rogers, are visiting at the Wm. Walker home.

Miss Sussie Smith of Maple Lake, Minn., is visiting with her sister, Mrs. Dennis O'Laughlin.

Mrs. C. J. Croonquist went down to Valley City last Thursday evening for a visit with her daughter, Miss Anna, who is attending the normal, and to take in the Schumann-Heink concert, returning home Sunday evening.

Mrs. Miklas and children, who have been visiting at the Anton Bartosh home for the past month, returned to their home in Dodge, Nebr., Tuesday evening.

F. L. Nichols transacted business in Courtenay, Tuesday evening.

John Harris attended a land sale at Hingham, Montana, last week.

Miss Georgia Feekler Sundayed with Clarence Isaacson and wife at Valley City.

Miss Christine Follansbee Sundayed with her sister, Mrs. Paul Gilger, in Jamestown.

A number of the young people enjoyed an outing at Arrowwood lake, Monday evening, making the trip in the "Carryall." The evening was most pleasantly spent in roasting "weenies" and toasting marshmallows. A delightful lunch was served by the young ladies to which all did justice, after which the merry crowd returned home, having a most enjoyable evening.

One Judge's Advice.

Omaha, Neb.—"If women and girls would wear old-fashioned hoop skirts and bustles, mashers would be discouraged," said District Judge Chas. Leslie.
