

Kensal Items.

Mrs. J. Egelhart of Enderlin, was in town on Saturday.

Mrs. Wm. Putnam and little son arrived from Minneapolis on Thursday morning and are visiting at the Collison home.

Miss Louise Hjorth spent Sunday in Carrington as a guest at the F. L. Thompson home.

Clarence Isaacson of Valley City came up Sunday morning and spent the day at the C. E. Thayer home.

Mr. Davies was an arrival from the east on Saturday morning, and is visiting at the C. J. Croonquist home.

Oscar Croonquist returned from his western trip on Thursday morning, and will spend some time here with the home folks.

Rev. H. W. Hynes went up to Kenmare on Saturday morning at which place he occupied the M. E. pulpit both Sunday morning and evening; Rev. Hewson of Wimbledon took the local pastor's place during his absence.

The dance given Thursday evening by Langley's orchestra was well attended, everyone in attendance enjoying themselves.

A number of the young people gathered at the Louis Frederickson home on Friday evening the event being a party given in honor of one of their number.

George Keeping of Leal, but who is well known here, came up on Thursday evening to take Mr. Wilkinson's place during his absence to the Twin cities on business.

H. B. Postalwaite of Carrington was transacting business in Kensal on Thursday.

Mr. Stephen Law of Bordulac, attended the Langley dance here Thursday evening.

E. A. Shurley, night operator at the Soo, is enjoying a vacation with friends and relatives at Buffalo Lake, Minn.

Miss Mae McBride attended the dance here Thursday evening.

Mr. Robert Hunt who for the past few months has been assisting at the First National Bank, left on Monday morning for Carrington.

Glenn Farrar returned on Friday morning from his business trip through the southern part of the state.

Dr. Longstreet reports the birth of a daughter at the J. B. Lonski home last week, and a daughter at the Chas Pierce home also.

O. B. Christopherson returned home Sunday evening from his business trip to the Cities.

Mr. G. A. Richardson is assisting at the depot during the absence of operator Shurley.

The lecture given on Monday evening by Mme. Howell was well delivered.

Miss Jeanette Carmody returned home on Tuesday evening from her extended vacation to points in Wis., Minn., and N. D.

Turner Moore of Wimbledon, was transacting business in Kensal on Tuesday.

J. P. Stone returned home from Minn. on Sunday.