

KENSAL

Miss Maude Lenz returned from Belgrade, Minn.; on Monday morning.

Einer Eikren left Wednesday evening for Webster, S. Dak., where he will hold a position with the Peterson Co., similar to the one he held here.

Glen Farrar was a business visitor to Carrington on Friday.

Rev. C. A. Vermilyas of Minot the district superintendent of the First M. E. Church held quarterly conference here Monday evening.

Miss Anna Croonquist left for Northfield, Minn., Monday to resume her studies at the Normal.

Mr. J. E. Richart and daughter Blanche returned from Carrington the latter part of last week where they had spent New Years with relatives. Miss Blanche also spent some time at Jamestown.

Carl Anderson is visiting with relatives at Joliet, Ill., and expects to be gone until spring.

Miss Georgia Feckler left on train 106 Monday evening for Moberly, Mo., where she will spend the remainder of the winter visiting with relatives. She will visit in Minneapolis and Northfield, Minn., enroute.

The Cox-Tucker Co., have their stock of goods in shape and have opened their store to the public this week. They will carry a full line of hardware goods in the Jacob Peterson building. A. Kjelson is manager.

Miss Cussitor of Cleveland is the teacher at the Fred Hanson school, finishing out the term begun by Louise Guslander.

Anton Feckler went to the Twin Cities Tuesday morning to attend to business matters.

Miss Blanche Booth returned to her home at Valley City, after a weeks visit at the Wilkinson home.

Mildred Craig was a guest at the Dan Clancy home from Friday morning leaving at that time for McClusky to resume her school duties.

All the teachers for the Kensal and surrounding schools returned Sunday or Monday morning to take up their duties again after the Xmas holidays.