

Meets With an Accident

REV. KINGSTON HAS SOME ROUGH
RIDING ON HIS WAY TO NEW HOME

A letter received from J. W. Kingston by Mr. Moffitt states that he met with an accident on his journey to his new home. Owing to the fact that Mr. Kingston had some live stock loaded in the car with his household goods before leaving here, it was necessary that he should go with the car.

The trip proved very smooth until a point beyond Butte, Mont., was reached, when for some reason, the train gave a sudden bump, throwing Mr. Kingston with such force that he was quite severely shaken up, one of his hands being badly mashed, and one finger will have to be amputated. He was taken to a company doctor and attend to and finally taken to his destination. Quite a number of the furniture was broken.

He reports his crops at Dietrich, Idaho, his home, doing nicely. Mrs. Kingston and family arrived safely and they like their new home very much.
