

The editor is in receipt of a lengthy letter from Rev. Kingston, formerly of this place, but now of Dietrich, Idaho. He states that he and his family are all well and that they are enjoying life in the far west. They have had a number of nice hunting trips, and that they have, by actual count killed 1600 jack rabbits during the past winter. Some photographs were sent one of which showed a large number of rabbits that they had killed in one day, lying around a straw pile. Mr. Kingston has accepted a fine position with a large concern at Dietrich as their bookkeeper. We are glad to hear that they are doing so nicely in their new home.
