

Andrew Klemick left Tuesday morning for Sibley, Mont. He has a homestead about 40 miles from there, which he filed on a year ago last October consisting of a half section of land. He will try while at Sibley, where the land office is located, to get his time extended until spring before going on the land, and if not will stay there.