

HERE FROM SWEDEN—

Alfred Lindvall arrived in this city Tuesday morning on a visit with his sister, Mrs. Wellman, who resides on the James Reid farm, north of here. Mr. Lindvall came direct from his home in Sweden, being on the water seventeen days, and put in a mighty rough voyage. The ship that he sailed on was one of the old time boats and was condemned after its arrival on this side and put out of commission. It took him a month to get here which makes a long, tiresome trip, and he was very glad when he got on this side of the water. He may decide to remain in this country.
