

Evan Munro wishes to express his appreciation to all those who contributed to the fund raised for his benefit to help him financially in replacing the buildings on his poultry farm that were destroyed by the storm last Sunday. The donation was unsolicited and was therefore a welcome surprise to Mr. Munro who is very thankful for the aid so cheerfully given. To Shad Roe and A. P. McFadden we give due credit for the idea and carrying it to completion.