

Jacob Schuer, who has been employed at the Herman Neinfeldt farm, indulged in a little too much of intoxicants Wednesday and while feeling the effects of the same, used Mr. Neinfeldt for a target, taking a shot at him. His aim was poor, and Mr. Neinfeldt considers it a very fortunate thing that such was the case. He was brought to town and given a hearing before Justice Bouer, who decided that the best thing to do with him would be to bound him over to district court. Pat Clark took him to Jamestown for safe keeping until the district court convenes next June.
