

A. C. Parker, who was formerly located here, employed at the local barber shop, but who has been located in Jamestown, since leaving here, has accepted a position in one of the large Canadian vaudeville houses as player of drums and traps in the orchestra. Mr. Parker is a good musician and has furnished music for the dances here on many occasions.