

Pleasant View News

Seeding is advancing rapidly in this vicinity and the outlook is very promising for a bumper crop. Here is hoping that it may.

The Misses Pearl and Allie Bemis visited W. W. Bemis on Saturday and Sunday.

Miss Hazel Bemis, who is teaching at Kensal, spent Sunday at the Bemis home, returning to her School Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Gorthy and family visited this vicinity via the auto route, Sunday.

Rev. Ballanger will hold regular services in the church at Glenfield at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. on next Sunday. All are cordially invited.

Johnnie Bond reports a fine large baby girl at his residence and John wears a smile that won't come off.

Warren Hayes, who is attending high school at Courtenay, visited at the paternal home Saturday, returning Sunday.

It is reported that the steel will be laid on the Great Northern cut-off by June 1st. Here's hoping that it may.

Oscar Holton, A. E. Jackson and Carl Erdal visited at the Bemis home Sunday.

Mrs. Tracy visited at the Hays farm on Friday.

K. A. Knutson visited in Courtenay Saturday.

W. E. Allen lost a valuable mare last week from lung fever. Hard luck Will.

It is reported that a double wedding was held in the Glenfield Free Methodist church. Here' congratulations.