

---

Will Leave Here

H. P. Postlewaite, has returned from St. Paul, where he went on business. While away he secured a splendid position on the road, his territory being in Minnesota, and his headquarters will be St. Paul. Mrs. Postlewaite and son, Russell, will remain here until February, when they will leave for St. Paul to make their home.

Homer enters upon his duties January 1st. His numerous friends here congratulate him on landing such a fine position.

---