

Miss Mayme Potvin who has been employed on the Jasper Dick farm for the past two years, left Wednesday evening for her home in Minneapolis. She has made many friends here and will be greatly missed, especially by her country friends, who always found her jolly and entertaining.