

Chas. Pratt left Saturday morning for his claim in the western part of the state. His claim is located in the famous Golden Valley, south of Beach, and adjoins the land of Mr. Johnson, formerly of this place. Mr. Pratt has already built a house and expects to make many other improvements while there. He will be gone about a month. After he finishes his harvesting here he will move his family out to his claim and make that his future home.