

t
·
r
·
·
1
1
·
·
·
·
3

Elwood Robinson, who has been with the Lundeen store, has embarked into the automobile business at Pingree, this county. He reports that the people there have offered him great inducements to come and open up a garage, and he is now busy getting into shape to doctor the needs of the auto. He has a large territory to draw from and from indications he will be kept busy.