

Mrs. A. H. Robinson was taken suddenly ill last Monday evening, caused by overwork, and the family and her many friends became very much alarmed over her condition, but it is a pleasure to note that she is rapidly gaining and from present indications will soon be able to be around.

---