

Shad Roe and wife arrived home last night from a six week's visit at Mr. Roe's old home in York, Nebr. While there Shad underwent an operation, and was in the hospital for three weeks. Although Shad is a little light in weight at this time, he otherwise is feeling very good. They expect to pack their furniture and leave for their new home at Weyburn, Can., where Mr. Roe will manage the Rogers lumber yard at that point.