

E. L. Shaw suffered a severe bump on the nose while playing ball last Thursday afternoon. A high fly was batted and Shaw and one of the other fellows started after it, which resulted in the two of them coming together with a hard bump. Shaw got the worst of it and had his nose cut open and it was necessary for him to wear a bandage on it for a few days.