

Paul Skjerseth shipped a Shetland pony, which he recently purchased at the sale held on Hans Nelson farm, to the little daughter of Dr. Sand, of Fargo. Mr. Skjerseth is a personal friend of the family and the pony was sent the little girl as a token of friendship. The pony furnished amusement for several who happen to be at the station just before loading the same.