

J. E. Son, our station agent, who is an accomplished musician has reorganized the Kensal band and the first practice was held in the fire hall on Monday evening. With the able instruction of Mr. Son we look forward to a good band for the coming season.