

Rev. F. B. Stevenson of Emerald, N. D., has accepted a call to the pastorate of the Presbyterian church here. Rev. Stevenson has preached the past two Sundays here on trial, and his sermons proved that he was a man of worth and would prove of value to the church and public generally. The church has been without a pastor since its former pastor, Rev. Kingston, resigned to take up his home in the west, and it will be good news to the people in this community to learn of the pulpit being regularly supplied again, and it is hoped that their appreciation will be shown by their attendance at the services from henceforth on. Preaching Sunday both morning and evening.

---