

To Leave Courtenay

Rev. Stevenson, who has been pastor of the Presbyterian church at this place for the past year and a half, tendered in his resignation at the Sunday evening service, to take effect as soon as a pastor can be had.

Mr. Stevenson decided that owing to the fact that his wife was keeping house for their children, who are attending the university at Grand Forks, which greatly reduces the expense of their schooling, it was best that he secure a pastorate nearer that point. Under such conditions he did not care to move here and was well aware of the fact that a minister should be had that would bring his family to Courtenay.

Mr. Stevenson has not accepted a call as yet.
