

---

Following the resignation of Sam Syvertson as city marshall, the town board, in their meeting held Thursday evening, appointed August Swanson to serve the unexpired term, until the annual village elections next march. Many are of the opinion that Mr. Swanson, despite his diminutive stature will make an ideal defendand of justice and are in favor of electing him for the position in next spring's election.

---