

Aug. Swanson, who has been acting in the capacity of marshal, has resigned, and is now free from the care and worry of an officer. Mr. Swanson expects to put in some time helping with the large amount of work available. His successor has not been selected up to this time, but it is only a question of a short time until the vacancy will be filled.