

Johnny Swanson, who has been with his brother at Judson, Minn., in the railway service, is now located at Sanborn, N. D., where he is operator for the Northern Pacific. This is a very good position and his friends here will be glad to know that he is getting to the front. His father, Aug. Swanson, visited with him one day last week.